YOUR LAST OPPORTUNITY IN 1934

To Buy KUNDERD GLADIOLI

While They Last

AT BARGAIN PRICES

We Reserve Nothing — All Our Finest Varieties Will Be Used in This Collection Regardless of Cost — You Have Never Seen a Bargain Like This One — It is the Cream of the Gladiolus Crop Put Up in a Special Collection For You.

This is absolutely the LAST GLADIOLUS OFFER this spring. These bulbs are the ones you need for that late planting to give you blooms in late August, September and October. A planting now will give you flowers after the hottest summer weather is past and at a time when you can best enjoy them.

We might call this collection "The Last of the Garden Beautiful" for there will be every conceivable color — selected with the utmost care to assure perfect harmony of color. NONE OF THE INDIVIDUAL VARIETIES WILL BE LABELED. These will all be large size bulbs which will flower wonderfully well this summer. Think of the joy you can have going out into the garden each morning to see what lovely gladiolus has unfurled its beautiful petals.

REMEMBER, FOLKS, this is YOUR LAST OPPORTUNITY to buy gladiolus this spring. It is only because of the tremendously large stock of gladiolus we grew last summer that we have been able to save out enough bulbs to make this offer.

ORIENTAL POPPIES

What is more beautiful than a bold mass of these majestic flowers with their large flower cups in bright oriental colors? May and June is their regular blooming season. They grow 2½ to 4 feet high and do well in any open, sunshiny position in good, deep, loamy soil.

We will be able to take care of only one thousand orders for the poppies so we suggest that you order at once and be sure of getting the poppies you want.

Every collection will contain the following varieties:

Lulu A. Neeley—the very best red oriental poppy in the world. A few years ago this variety sold at $5.00 each.

Wurtembergia — the largest variety grown. It is one of the finest reds in existence and formerly sold at $4.00 each.

In addition to these we will include either a Mrs. Perry or Edna Perry. Both of these varieties are pink and are exceedingly choice.

Shipments to be made in August.
